Questions as regards the appointment of candidates already in service in advertised Vacancies.

Serial No.

Letter No. H. 343/32-33 of 15.11.1932 from the School Board Officer enclosing draft. soliciting instructions on certain points as regards the appointment of candidates already in service in advertised Vacancies.

It is for orders if Fin. Br. may be consulted on points 1, 2 and 3 in the D.V.D. The question of age limit does not seem to arise in case of appointment of a candidate already in service, as it is not a first appointment.

As regards points 4, 5 & 6 further orders sought for in the matter in the linked file D.O. No. 69/32-33 may perhaps be awaited.

SCHOOL BOARD OFFICE

No. K. 343/32-33

Encls.

Chitaldrug, Dated 14-11-32

To

The Secretary,
Central Recruitment Board,
Bangalore.

FROM

THE SCHOOL BOARD OFFICER,
CHITALDRUG.

Sir,

With reference to your office letter No.3008, dated 12th Nov.1932 forwarding applications for vacancy No.341, I have the honour to state that a few teachers in service have applied for the same. The choice according to rules falls on a dandidate from Kolar District, who has put in 12 years of service and who is drawing Rs.20/

Under these circumstance, I have to request definite information on the following points.

(1) Whether the one selected can count all his previous service.

(2) (Whether the question of age limit which is partly inter dependent on the 1st point does not arise.

(3) Whether the question of T.A. and benefit of joining time are allowable.

(4) The selection of this candidate would mean penalising of worthy candidates in this district itself, whether these should not be given preference is a point to be considered.

(5) Should the mere fact of their not having applied go against their claims?

(6) Is there any course open under such circumstances to guard the interest of the teachers of one and the same district under the jurisdiction of this office. Confining the scope strictly to N.B.candidates, when the vacancies are special

As this is a sample case of real hardship exsiting teachers your kind and definite instructions are solicited to find a way out of the difficulty.

At best if nothing can be done I want permission to re-advertize the vacancy so that the teacher's of the District may also be given particular notice of the vacancy so that they may also apply. In that case a definite ruling is necessary as the question of service already comes up for solution.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
K.R.Ramaswamy 14/11

(2) As regards the general question of limiting the selection of candidates to those candidates belonging to one and the same Dist., such a concession has been allowed recently in the case of the Kolar Dist. on the recommendation of the Dir. of Public Instn. on the resolutions of the School Board and the Local Education Authority. When similar proposals come from other districts, they may be considered by Govt.

(3) As regards the other points raised by you, nothing prevented the qualified teachers of the Chitaldrug Dist. from applying for the advertised Vacancy vide No. 341/23-25 as the rules must be well known. There is, therefore no necessity to re-advertise the Vacancy.
